Dad Gianpietro tells the story of Emanuele to adults and children.

Gianpietro Ghidini lost his son, who threw himself off a bridge after taking an ecstasy pill. The immense pain that he felt, showed him a new path: to make teenagers understand that life is not to be thrown away.

A life testimony that helps demolish the wall between parent and child and to start an open and constructive conversation between them.

With inspirational message to the hearts and minds of the listeners, whether child or adult, Dad Gianpietro, President of PesciolinoRosso, will share with you the story of his son.

It will be an unforgettable event!

"Every one of you teenagers knows which one is the right path and which one is the wrong path. Recklessness is part of the teenage years; the need to risk is part of the cycle of life. Like you are unique and priceless, there is only one priceless life." From the book LET ME FLY
